

ALDO BALDING

MAS d'AUGE - FONTVIEILLE - PROVENCE

APRIL 12/16 2027

The workshop will take place from April 12 to April 16 2027 at Mas d'Auge in Fontvieille, located between Arles and Avignon.

Participants are invited to arrive on Sunday (11 April) late afternoon in order to take the time together to know the group and meet Aldo Balding for those who have not yet had the pleasure.

There will be two painting sessions of approximately three hours each per day.

The workshop will end on Friday at the end of the day, and departures are scheduled for Saturday morning after breakfast.

ACCOMMODATION

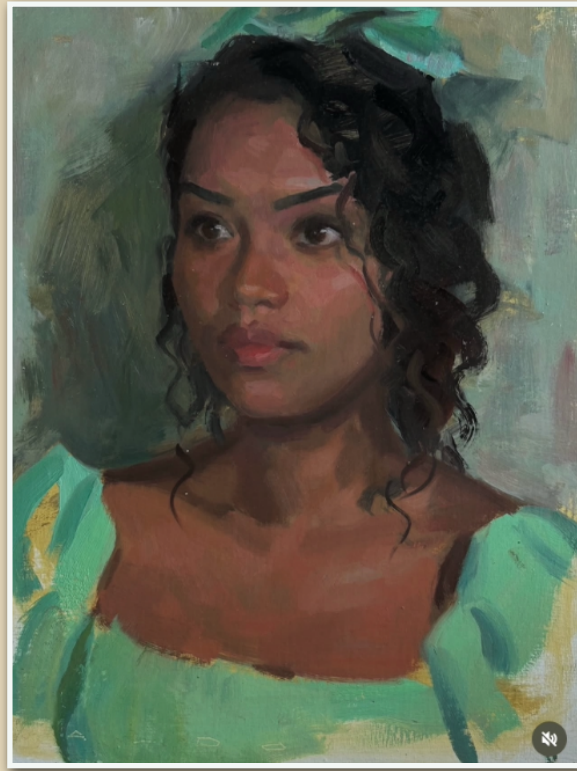

Le Mas d'Auge is a historic property nestled in the heart of the Alpilles, between Arles and Avignon, once part of Montmajour Abbey.

A peaceful and inspiring retreat, it regularly welcomes painters and musicians in a warm and intimate atmosphere.

The accommodation is simple yet refined, with comfortable rooms, shared bathrooms, and a swimming pool for relaxing.

A rare and secluded place where time slows down, offering the perfect balance between creativity, conviviality and rest.

This is a unique opportunity to paint alongside Aldo Balding, one of today's leading figurative painters, More than simply a painting workshop, this is a true artistic experience—a chance to step away from everyday life, immerse yourself in your practice, and spend several days surrounded by art, beauty, and like-minded people.

Set in the timeless atmosphere of a medieval French château, the workshop will offer students a rich variety of subjects. From the human figure to the surrounding landscape,

And throughout it all, there is the light—the subtle, ever-changing French light that transforms a face, a room, a garden, or a landscape and has inspired generations of artists.

Under Aldo's guidance, participants will strengthen their technical skills while exploring composition, colour, atmosphere, gesture, and visual storytelling. It is a week dedicated not only to learning how to paint, but also to learning how to see.
